At the PAAG January meeting...

Margaret Almon gave an interesting talk about her work, the art of glass mosaics. Along with bringing many pieces of her stunning work she passed around samples of different types of the glass she uses while giving a detailed talk on her work process.

Margaret will be teaching a class on the art of glass mosaics on April 10 and 11 at the Goggleworks Center for the Arts in Reading, PA . Really sounds like fun!

Sat: 10am to 4pm & Sunday: 1pm to 4pm $155 (Guild member 10% discount = $140) Questions? Call 717.431.8706 or email info@pacrafts.org

And in February...(Remember—The Show?)

But...In March our guest speaker will be award winning photographer Carmen Blike. Carmen is based in Phoenixville and teaches photography classes at The Phoenix Village Art Center, 207 Bridge St. 610-983-9430. Visit Carmen's website at www.carmenblike.com More in the March Sketchpad.

And speaking of award winners...

As you should have noticed on the title of this month's Sketchpad the PAAG has a new logo created by none other than award-winning artist and past president of the PAAG, Terry Souders. The new logo will give the PAAG a stronger identity in the Pottstown area and will look pretty cool on t-shirts and coffee mugs also! So, congratulations Terry and everyone who participated in the logo contest (even though it took a couple of years for the one who was running it to get in gear!)

See you all at the Art Show on Sunday!
